

C C/B Am Dm7 G
I don't know who's gonna see it through - The day they call the end of the earth

C C/B Am Dm7 G
But I know there'll be a chosen few - Who'll find out what this life was worth

C C/B Am Dm7 G
And the Sands of Time still fly - In a wind of wars and man's foolish pride

C C/B Am Dm7 G
But in the end he's gonna find out why - From God he had to run and hide

Short guitar break C - C/B - Am - Dm7 - G

Refrain:

Fmaj7 Cmaj7 Am Em
The Sands of Time are drifting away - the Sands of Time still fly

Fmaj7 Cmaj7 Dm G
I don't know why it happens this way - I just don't know the reason why

Through the darkness I can see a light - A lamp that will be lit again
It from a man whose clothes are glowing bright -
And with bang he's gonna end all our pain...

'ad lib' guitar to finish

This song is the artistic property of Tim Jenks and John Martin. Permission is granted for public performance of this song, but the composers retain the publication and recording rights.